

1. Dee made a poor choice when she took revenge on Samantha.
 - How did you feel during the scene in the cafeteria?
 - How did you feel when Ms. Hersh was trying to find out who did it?
 - The girls had to face each other to work it out. Was this a good plan?
 - Were you surprised when Dee's "explosion" changed everything between the girls?
 - Have you ever made a mistake against a friend or classmate?
 - If so, how did you make up for it?
 - Did you become friends with that person? If no, could you now?
2. If you were Samantha, would you have forgiven Dee? Explain your choice.
3. If you were Dee, would you have told on Andrew for his non-stop teasing? Explain.
4. When Dee teased Joey, her mother reprimanded her by saying, "When you tease others in an insulting way, it doesn't seem like a joke to them."
 - Do you think this is good advice?
 - The last time someone teased you in a mean way, did you think it was funny?
 - Have you teased someone in a mean way? How did the person react?
5. Dee and Samantha went from enemies to friends. Has this ever happened to you?
6. Dee and Joey had some sibling issues.
 - Do you think they should have tried harder to get along?
 - What could each of them have done to improve their relationship?
 - Do you have challenges with your sibling(s)?
7. What was your favorite part of the book? Explain.
